ARTIST STATEMENT

Rose Magee is a British painter who moved to Germany in 2012, she is currently based in the vibrant city of Berlin. She attended art college and later trained as a tattooist which is reflected in her style of painting. After working for 5 years in the profession, she decided to retrain and is now pursuing an artistic career in the conservation of cultural heritage. Rose is drawn to the art of the first half of the 20th Century and uses a mix of these artistic movements such as Precisionism/ Cubism/ Avant-Garde, as well as Realism and Surrealism. Her work is characterized by sharp lines and dramatic lighting with bold colors, capturing everyday objects and landmarks. Working mainly with oil paint on canvas, Rose has exhibited in independent Maltese and Berlin galleries. She has recently started to incorporate collage into her works and has just finished a series inspired by the human form. Website
